

IN THE UNITED STATE DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

Kelly A. Dortch,

CIVIL NO.: 6:11-CV-03058-HO

Plaintiff

v.

COMMISSIONER of Social Security Administration

ORDER

Defendant.

Applying the precedent of the Gisbrecht (Supreme Court) and Crawford (Ninth Circuit en banc) cases, and considering all appropriate factors, including the result obtained, quality of representation, unnecessary delay, representation at multiple hearings and administrative levels, and risk of loss, this court finds that the requested fee is reasonable. This court approves the undersigned attorney's request and approve a fee of $22,743.55 minus the EAJA fees of $2908.73 previously awarded and paid and attorney fees of $6,000.00 already paid by the Social Security Administration resulting in $13,834.82.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 28 day of February, 2014.
